Alexander Maganiotis

Born in Athens where he lives and works. He studied architecture at the National Technical University of Athens Architectural design in "The Bartlett" University UCL in London. In 2015 he presented the section: "Alphabets: The Picture Letters" at the Centre of Contemporary Art of Thessaloniki, curated by John Bolis. His most recent solo exhibition titled: "No: in search of identity" took place in June 2014, in Skoufa gallery. He participated in Rooms 2014 organized by Kappatos gallery Hotel St. George Lycabettus, Athens and also presented his atwork at the European Patent Office in The Hague and in the Library of the Sint-Lukas in Brussels.